Find your Inner Compass and unleash your potential in your professional and personal life.

As a leader, woman, and mother, you face high expectations and demands on your time. It can be overwhelming, especially during bad days when self-doubt and lack of confidence creep in. Balancing family, personal time, and a professional career can feel like an impossible feat.

But there is hope. Our unique leadership programme is designed specifically for women in leadership positions who are trying to juggle it all. Adapted from the highly successful Self-Managing Leadership® (SML®) Programme from Oxford Leadership, our programme has helped almost one million participants discover their values, vision, and purpose. Our participants have proven that it is possible to achieve both professional and personal success while staying true to their authentic selves.

Join us and discover how you can thrive as a leader, woman, and mother.

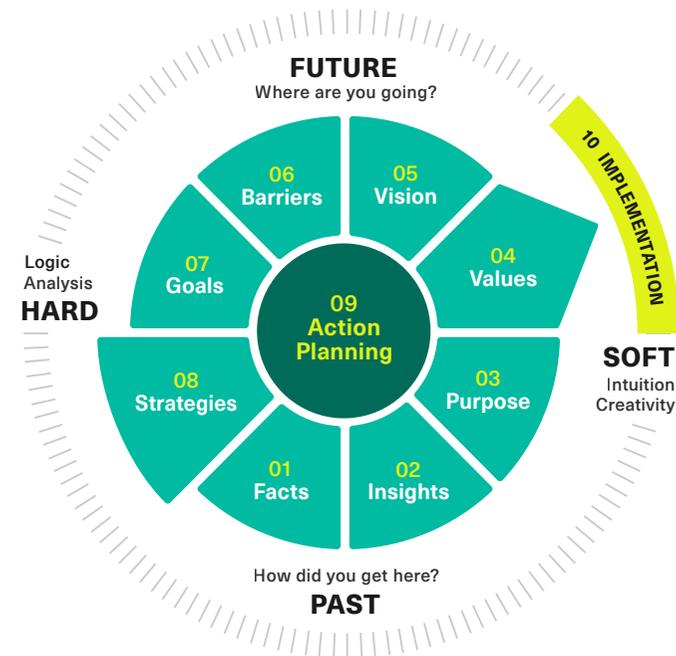

Tailor-made for female leaders.

The Inner Leadership Compass, tailor-made for female leaders, is a powerful, step-by-step framework that helps you focus, change negative habits, make critical choices, and bring plans to life.

A key feature of the programme is learning how to influence change at the individual, team, and organizational levels.

But that's not all. The power of collective wisdom is harnessed in this programme, as you'll have quality time with peers and engage in open conversations. You'll also have deep reflective time for yourself, something that is typically only found in one-on-one coaching sessions. This combination of group and individual work creates a dynamic and impactful experience that will help you achieve your goals and develop your leadership skills.

Join us on this journey of growth & self-discovery.

Why this programme is tailor-made for women

Because as female leaders and mothers, we have a unique role in creating a better world for everyone around us and for future generations. By investing in yourself and your leadership development, you are not only benefiting your own life and career, but also positively impacting those around you.

A programme to strengthen yourself from within.

We believe that as women, you already possess many of the skills necessary for future leadership success, including an innovative mindset, agile methods, active listening ability, and a sustainable mindset. Your leadership and voice are essential for driving positive change.

That's why we've designed these days specifically for you, to support you in staying strong at all levels and taking your next step of growth. Our programme is creative, energizing, deep, and inspiring, paving the path for a new workplace, smart solutions, and positive impact in society.

Identify your purpose or that which gives meaning to your life.

Create a future vision for your life in three key areas: your role as a leader, your role in your family/community life and your personal life.

Recognise and put in place a plan to overcome barriers which are holding you back from becoming all that you can be.

Emerge with concrete strategies for managing yourself better, your relationships, your career and your organisation.
